The Literacy Network of South Berkshire (LitNet) is seeking new volunteer tutors to work with adult learners in Berkshire County. LitNet's mission is to transform the lives of adult learners, both immigrant and U.S.-born, through the power of literacy, education, and advocacy.

LitNet is offering free training for new volunteer tutors on Tuesdays, Oct. 2, 9; and Monday, Oct. 15, at the Lee Library from 4-6 p.m. This three-part series will introduce volunteers to the organization's mission and will offer comprehensive strategies for working with adult English Language Learners. No prior teaching experience is necessary. All you need is curiosity, compassion, patience, and a willingness to help your neighbors!

To learn more or register for training, contact Education Coordinator Susan Borek at 413-243-0471

BIBLE BASICS – FOUNDATIONS SERIES SEMINAR

Explore the revealed Word of God through a quick Journey Through the Bible. This seminar is suitable for both beginners and for those who are experienced at Bible study, because it simplifies the complexity of the Bible through an easy-to-follow narrative approach, and an ingenious color-coded Bible Timeline. It is a great way for you to get the "big picture" of Salvation History from the Catholic perspective, and to see how the Bible reveals God's loving plan for your life. The instructor, Keith Messier, MAAT - has a real passion for this material and has taught it often. The 4-session seminar begins on Sept. 24, at St. Ann's Parish Center, Lenox (or Sept. 26, at St. Elizabeth's Parish Center in Ludlow). To register, please contact Darcy Dumaine at (413) 265-2575 or dumaine@elms.edu. The cost for the seminar is $30, plus $20 for the workbook.
