DALTON CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH TO PRESENT A PILGRIMAGE OF HOPE, THE RITE OF PASSAGE

The world premiere performance of 'A Pilgrimage of Hope, the Rite of Passage', will be presented at the Dalton Congregational Church, FCC, 514 Main St., on Friday and Saturday, November 9 and 10 at 7 p.m.

A contemporary musical passion play composed and designed by Kate Caton and Ted Kastrinos, the play investigates the impulse to reflect and revisit humanity through the eyes and ears of artistic expression. Historically rooted in prose, essays and quotations from our fore-fathers and mothers on the concepts of life and humanity, the spirit of each gesture is highlighted and enhanced with music, song, movement and media-correlated backdrop meaningful to the communities in which it is presented.

Tickets are available at the door or from members of the choir, The Green Gargoyle thrift shop or the church office at 413-684-1715 during operating hours. The suggested donation is $5 with proceeds going toward the church's mission projects. A light reception will follow each performance.
